

Co-Op Task Is Great

Despite some renewed interest in the continuance of the Andover Co-Op, there has not been a single sale of additional stock in the downtown Andover food shopping establishment, according to William M. Wilbur, 33 Hidden Road, a member of the board of directors.

Wilbur in a letter to the TOWNSMAN this week points out some "cold facts," concerning the Co-Op which he feels must be considered in light of the announcement earlier this month that the board would recommend liquidation of the assets at the April 8 annual meeting.

Wilbur, noting that he was speaking on a personal basis and not as a director, in a similar vein to comments made by Kenneth P. Thompson, quoted here the past two weeks, said the Co-Op had an operating loss of $80,500 in 1974. A total of $150,000 is needed in new equity to bring down current liabilities and make necessary repairs.

The corporation now has 13,700 shares of stock outstanding with a value of $68,500. In order to raise the $150,000 necessary, it would require the sale of 30,000 new shares. No shares have been sold since the initial announcement of the plight of the Co-Op in the March 13 edition of the TOWNSMAN.

Wilbur also comments on the weekly volume of business needed to maintain the store, which he says in the $40,000 to $45,000 range. The store averaged $33,000 weekly in the first ten weeks of 1975.

The Co-Op director also comments that while the closing of the store is not in the best interests of the employees or the

Not a snow capped forest scene, but simply a closeup of some small plants in a shaded area retaining their dusting of last Saturday's snow storm, as a reminder that winter officially ends today. State Of Schools Given

Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert presented an 18-point plan for Andover schools Tuesday night, that includes equal services for students, resolving of overcrowding at the secondary level, and improving the "physical condition" of youngsters in the community.

Seifert's suggestions, along with those of principals and assistant principals, will now be considered by the school committee, who will add their own priorities and come up with a "direction letter" to be sent home to parents next month.

The administrators' ideas on the state of the schools were presented by Sanborn Principal Joseph Normandy.

Seifert called equal services one of the "most significant" of his suggestions. While the town

New Rules For Town Meeting

Some procedural changes in town meeting will be instituted this year by Moderator William Dalton, who announced this week that persons wishing to consider line items in the budget must identify themselves, and also there will be a limit placed on debate.

The moderator has accepted recommendation made to him by the town government study committee, a group appointed by him to improve town meeting methods.

Contest Set For Bicentennial Logo

The Andover Bicentennial Committee has initiated a contest to obtain an emblem, or logo for the celebration marking Andover's participation in the nation's 200th anniversary observance.

Prizes will be awarded for the entries selected for first, second and third place winners.

Mrs. Norma Gammon, Andover bicentennial chairman, in announcing the contest this week, said that deadline for entries will be 5:30 p.m. on April 14, and that the contest is open to all Andover residents 12 years of age and older.

Entries should be delivered to Mrs. Gammon at 15 Abbot St., Andover, Mass. 01810.

Contest rules are:

1. Emblem design must pertain to the town of Andover.
2. Contest is open to all Andover residents, 12 years of age and older.
3. Design must be original.
4. Emblem must be suitable for reproduction in black and white or color.
5. Submit entries on suitable white stock, 8 1/2 by 11 inches.

Name and address on separate paper taped to the back of the entry.

6. Deadline for entries is 5:30, April 15. Entries may be delivered to: Mrs. Norma Gammon, 115 Abbot St., Andover, Mass. 01810.

7. Prizes to be awarded: $100 for first place; $50 for second and $25 for third.

The bicentennial committee received the support of the selectmen this week in their request to have an article seeking $17,000 in funds for the Andover observance included in the warrant for the special town meeting on April 7.

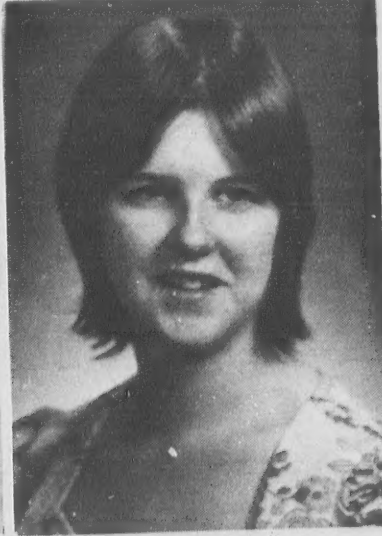

Through the efforts of the committee, the selectmen also approved the establishment of a Historical District Study Committee for the town.

As for the funds, Mrs. Gammon explained to the selectmen, that some money may be returned to the town through matching funds from the federal government and also through admission charged

Named Merit Finalists

Three Andover High seniors who were named Merit Scholarship semi-finalists last fall, have been named finalists in that competition.

Albert I. Alexander, Mark L. Travis and Denise M. White, will now be notified by the end of April if they are, in fact, Merit Scholarship winners.

Alexander, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Alexander, 14 Osgood Street, and Travis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Travis, 62 Elm Street, have both been accepted at Brown University.

Denise, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril M. White, 28 Karlton Circle, has chosen Colby College.

This year about 14,000 finalists will compete for about 1,000 one-time National Merit $1,000 scholarships and 2,400 four-year Merit Scholarships to be awarded.

Andover Teacher Buys No. Andover Restaurant

THE TOWNSMAN, MARCH 20, 1975

An Andover school teacher, an educator for over 20 years, will leave that field this week to enter the restaurant business.

John Boyle, an English teacher at Andover High School, for the past several years, will take over Butcher Boy Restaurant in North Andover.

Boyle, who also has served as a member of the school committee in Beverly, where he resides, will take over the North Andover restaurant in April from the Yameen family who have operated the dining establishment along with the Butcher Boy meat stores in North Andover and Salem, N.H. for many years.

Purchase price of the restaurant is one million dollars.

The new restaurateur explained that the decision to purchase the business was fulfilling goal he had set many years ago.

Boyle said he had made up his mind to teach for 20 years after which he would go into this type of business.

He worked for two summers at Butcher Boy and also for eight years at Finnerty's restaurant in Gloucester.

He plans no major changes in the operation of the restaurant, keeping it basically the same.

It is somewhat ironic that a school teacher would take over the restaurant which prior to being taken over by the Yameen family, was known as The Little Red Schoolhouse.

The original name was due to the original building being at one time a North Andover school. It was a one room school, known as Pond school.

As a restaurant it was operated for many years by Robert Dowe and had been enlarged several times.

The structure was almost entirely rebuilt within the past decade after the Yameen family attained ownership, due to a fire which badly gutted the interior.

John Boyle

Boyle's resignation from the Andover system was accepted by the school committee earlier this month to be effective on Friday.

Reaffirm Policy On Maternity Leave

The Andover School Committee Tuesday night indicated its intention to limit maternity leave to the two years provided in the teacher's contract.

Acting on three requests tabled at their March 4 meeting, the committee approved three maternity leave extensions up to, but not surpassing, two years.

Mrs. Alice Gosse, science teacher at East Junior High, received an extension for the 1975-76 school year, and Mrs. Kathleen St. Amand, primary teacher at West Elementary, received an extension until the February vacation of 1976.

The committee also approved an extension until the February vacation of 1976, for Mrs. Sheila Kennedy, intermediate level teacher at South School. She had requested leave for the entire 1975-76 school year, but has been on leave since April 1 of last year.

The committee referred back to the administration for action per the teacher's contract, the request for a third year of maternity leave from Mrs. Patricia Colella, English teacher at the high school. She has been on leave since the beginning of the 1973-74 school year.

Committeeman George Olesen sought to ignore that request since, he said, it conflicts with the teacher's contract, and he said it was a "mistake" that the matter had been brought before the committee at all.

Personnel Manager Robert Olsson said he was seeking direction from the committee, and Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert added that if the administration was coming to the committee with legitimate concern on what action to take, the committee should honor the request.

Olsson said that leave extensions have been granted up to four months beyond two years in the past, so as not to bring a teacher back in the middle of the year.

Chairman Frank Griggs interpreted the "two year" rule to mean that a teacher could have leave for the remainder of the school year in which she left, plus another full year.

Seifert said he felt even February vacation was not a satisfactory returning point, because it would still disrupt the classroom.

He suggested that the committee in the future grant maternity leaves until the end of a current school year. Then, he said, a teacher could reapply by some specified date -- such as in May -- for an extension for the following year.

In other personnel action, the committee approved two retirements for the end of the current school year.

Miss Martha Howe, a first grade teacher at Shawsheen School, has been in the Andover school system since 1946. Mrs. Evelyn Sullivan, a special needs teacher at Bancroft, has been in the system since September, 1966.

Mrs. A. Patricia McGarry, a third grade teacher at Sanborn, resigned, also effective at the end of the school year. A teacher in Andover schools since September, 1967, she has been on a maternity leave of absence since January 2, 1973.

The committee also appointed Mrs. Carolyn Hetley of Andover to the position of school nurse; Mrs. Mary Butler, learning disabilities teacher - tutor at West Elementary; Mrs. Joyce Powers, LD teacher - tutor at Doherty; Mrs. Wendy Moseley, LD instructional aide at East Junior High; and Mrs. Linda Potter, LD instructional aide at West Junior High, all effective yesterday.

Mrs. Hetley holds her R.N. from the Grace-New Haven School of Nursing. She was a parttime staff nurse at Hughes House, and has been a substitute nurse here since 1973.

Mrs. Butler holds an A.B. degree from Smith College, and an M.Ed. from Boston University. She took the Andover L.D. in-service course and LD graduate courses at Lowell State. She has been an instructional aide at South School.

Mrs. Powers, a B.S. graduate of Lesley College, also took the Andover in-service course and graduate LD courses at Lowell State. She had taught grades two, three and five in Acton and Ayer, and has done substitute work in those towns, as well as Andover.

Mrs. Moseley holds a teacher's certificate from the University of London, and has taken the Andover L.D. course. She taught high school in England, has been director of the Ingram Pre-School in North Andover, and has taught at the Christ Church Nursery School.

Mrs. Potter, a graduate of Colby College, took the Andover L.D. course and has been a substitute teacher here.

The school committee also made the following coaching appointments for the spring season: Charles Wettergreen, freshman baseball, West Junior High, $584.52; Jay Darrin, grades 7 and 8 baseball at West Junior High, $536.25; Edward Kelley, J.V. baseball at the high school, $655.88; and Miss Patricia Morin, girls softball at the High School, $453.75. Wettergreen, an English teacher at West Junior High, has had three year's coaching experience, while Darrin, a math teacher, is making his debut as baseball coach.

Kelley teaches in Lowell and has been the J.V. baseball coach at Andover High for the past two seasons. Miss Morin, a substitute teacher, was the girls J.V. basketball coach at AHS this winter.

appears that Sacred Heart School would be a "desireable purchase." Original estimates showed that Sacred Heart could handle 300 pupils -- the largest enrollment that school ever attained.

However, Seifert said, further studies show that by knocking out the dormitory and taking advantage of other space, the school could house 800 to 900 youngsters.

Seifert said that Andover parents might not take too well to the idea that their youngsters aren't in the best of physical condition.

However, he said, in a community "where we get more than average health care and the opportunity for a good diet is present" physical fitness, when compared with the national average, "is not satisfactory."

He suggested that the schools start studying the problem because, he said, "it is not sufficient to exercise in the physical class if you don't practice these activities in your daily lives."

While Andover youngsters have made great achievements in sports -- such as the Superbowl team -- Seifert said, "I'm talking about the 6400 pupils, not just 87 on the high school football team."

Also on the secondary level, Seifert suggested an "unlabeled" night school that would present an alternative for a variety of youngsters.

Such a school could serve youngsters who need only one or two credits for graduation, and could work in the daytime, he said. It could also service youngsters who "don't see the value in school" and want to take a job. They could maintain their affiliation with education through one or two evening courses.

Night school, Seifert added, could help eliminate the attendance problem, and could be set up using existing staff.

He also suggested a detailed study on the non-college-bound student, and improving of student behavior at large group gatherings.

Andover is proud of how its performing youngsters conduct themselves, he said, yet a small number in the audiences stamp their feet, walk across basketball floors, and create other problems.

Other suggestions included long-range planning, particularly in the areas of population, finances, building and programs; quarterly reviews of the school committee with the central office to see how well goals are being met; a community survey in each school district to determine what people really think about how their schools are going; more consistency throughout the system, particularly for the sixth to seventh and ninth to 10th grade transitions; and standardization of internal assessment measures.

Still other ideas included data retrieval services to help out with the instructional programs; comprehensive examinations; released time for staff members; establishing of a coordinated health program; monthly seminars for parents on various topics; and emphasis on the speaking and listening skills.

for such events as house tours and bus tours.

The chairman explained that money is needed for planning purposes.

Commitments must be made to bands for the parade being planned for July 4, 1976.

Materials for plaques, informational brochures and other items must be planned for and purchased.

While some of these items will qualify for matching funds, when and if the town is designated as a bicentennial town, application for which is in process, the funds are needed in the planning stages to assure the success of the program.

The town appropriation to be acted on at the April 7 session will be for a three year period.

The Historical District Study committee was presented by Francis Demers, along with Mrs. Gammon.

A previous committee of this type had been in operation but no final reports or decision had been made, the selectmen were told.

Also, qualifications for establishing historical districts in a community have changed since the work of the past committee was initiated.

Aim of the study is to preserve historic and architectural areas and buildings of a community.

The local group would work with state and the Andover Historical Society as well as with the Bicentennial committee and the planning board.

A committee of seven members, will be named at a subsequent meeting of the selectmen.

Make fitness the concern of your family. The Massachusetts Chiropractic Society recommends proper exercise and diet and reminds you that physical fitness starts with correct posture.

Co-Op Faces Great Task

downtown area, the magnitude of the task which must be accomplished to keep it in operation should not be underestimated.

Mr. Wilbur's letter:
To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I have read with interest your news items and editorial on the Andover Co-Op. As a member of the Co-Op Board of Directors with some knowledge of the situation I feel the need to express my point of view on the hopes being held out for continued operation. In doing so I am not speaking for the Board of Directors and it should also be made clear that the oft quoted Mr. Thompson is not an official spokesman of the Board either.

I think we must be coldly realistic about the financial condition of the Andover Co-Op. The operation had an operating loss of $80,500 in 1974. A total of $150,000 in new equity capital is needed to bring current liabilities down to manageable proportions and to make the necessary repairs to the physical plant and equipment. The corporation currently has 13,700 shares of stock outstanding with a value slightly in excess of $68,500. To raise $150,000 would require the sale of 30,000 new shares, more than twice the number now outstanding. In spite of the renewed interest mentioned in your March 13 edition, not one new share of stock has been sold in the past month.

Beyond the question of raising new equity capital, there is the problem of the volume of business which the Co-Op must generate to cover expenses and to pay stock dividends and patronage refunds. In my judgement, the store must do a weekly volume in the $40-45,000 range to be a viable proposition. Through the first 10 weeks of 1975, the weekly volume has averaged under $33,000. Clearly, the stockholders and other interested townspeople must not only generate a considerable new fund of equity capital, they must also increase their patronage of the store by 30 to 50 per cent.

Clearly, the closing of the Co-Op is not in the best interests of the store's employees, the downtown business district or its patrons. Further, none of us who serve on the Board of Directors want to see the liquidation of the Co-Op. At the same time we should not underestimate the magnitude of the task which must be accomplished to restore the Co-Op to a financially sound, viable cooperative enterprise.

is doing a reputable job with 766, he said, there are indications that the gifted student has not been served.

Achievement among youngsters with I.Q.'s of 130 to 150 is sometimes a problem, he said, and added that there has been a regression among some of the more gifted students. "The 145 deserves as fair a shake as the 100," he said.

The argument that a bright student will somehow make it, he said, "just doesn't hold up."

Seifert said that 80 per cent of the school resources should be distributed equally to all students, with the remaining 20 per cent going to those below-average, and suggested that this approach be "a significant plank in our long range plan."

There are "very good possibilities" of finding space at Phillips Academy, Seifert said, to alleviate the "serious" population problem in the secondary grades.

In addition, he said, it

CRASH VEHICLE. Car which was involved in the fatal accident at the Essex Street railroad crossing, Andover Monday morning, was pushed some distance from the crossing by the locomotive as indicated in this photo by Robert E. Look, whose real estate office is located on Railroad street and who notified police and called for the ambulance.

No. Andover Man Fatally Injured At R.R. Crossing

Investigators were still probing the circumstances surrounding the fatal automobile-train crash at the Essex street, Andover railroad crossing late Monday morning.

Anthony Barbera, 37, of 92 Lisa Lane, North Andover was pronounced dead on arrival at Lawrence General hospital after the car he was driving and a northbound Boston and Maine freight train were in collision shortly after 10 a.m. Monday.

Andover police and investigators from the state Department of Public Utilities were still investigating the cause of the accident Wednesday and attempting to determine why Barbera pulled out and passed a stopped car at the gates and ultimately came in contact with the train.

One train, a southbound freight had passed moments before, and probers theorize that possibly the driver thought the gates were stuck.

Barbera was stopped behind a car being driven by Helga Kuhn of Andover. Both were headed up the Essex street hill toward Andover center.

The impact of the crash resulted in the car being thrown in the air and landing again in an upright position several yards down the track.

The victim was affiliated with the MacDonald-Pangione Insurance Firm of Lawrence and operated the Great Pond Agency in North Andover.

Born in Lawrence, July 21, 1937, he attended Lawrence schools and graduated from Central Catholic High school. A graduate of Boston University, he held a Master's degree from Suffolk University where he qualified as a chartered property and casualty underwriter.

He was active in the Lawrence Y.M.C.A., Msgr. Shea Council 3819, Knights of Columbus and attended St. Michael's church.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia (Dunn) Barbera, three sons, Keith Anthony, Kevin Timothy and Kolby Michael; a daughter, Karen Margaret; a brother Vincent A. Barbera of Salem, N. H.; two sisters, Emily R., wife of Alfred A. Souter

Tyer To Close For Week

Andover's Tyer Rubber division of Converse Rubber Co., will close Friday for a week to adjust inventories, according to an announcement this week by Converse.

The announcement is a confirmation of a report issued last January when the firm indicated the possibility of a March inventory adjustment.

The firm intends to temporarily curtail production at certain facilities at the end of this month to adjust inventories, an action effecting 3,400 employees.

The facilities affected, in addition to the Andover plant, include Malden, Berlin, N.H. and Bristol, R.I.

The plants will be closed Friday, March 21 and will remain closed March 24 through March 28. Last February the same plants were closed for five working days.

Spring Courses Offered

The Recreation / Community Schools Department has decided to offer a few of its more popular classes in a short term Spring Program.

Registration for these classes will begin on Monday, March 31 at 8:30 a.m. and will be accepted on a first come first serve basis only at the Recreation / Community Schools office, 36 Bartlet St. The date for each class is listed with the description below. Please be aware that starting dates vary throughout the entire month of April.

The following courses will be offered:

Ballroom Dance: taught by Marie Parker will be held on Fridays at Bancroft School. All three levels will be offered. The program runs for 10 weeks and costs $15 per couple. The time for each level is 7-8 p.m. Advanced; 8-9 p.m. Intermediate; 9-10 p.m. Basic. Classes will begin April 11.

Men's Volleyball will be offered for 6 weeks on Tuesdays from 7:30-9:30 p.m. at West Junior High. The fee is $3 and the program will begin April 8.

Trimnastics for Women, taught by Harriet Ahouse will be offered for 6 weeks at West Elementary School. The class is Tuesdays from 8-9 p.m. The fee is $3 and the course will begin April 15.

Physical Conditioning for Men will run for 6 weeks at the High School. George Sullivan will help men get in shape for the summer through indoor as well as outdoor exercises. The class is on Wednesdays, 7:30-9:30 p.m. and costs $5. It will begin April 16.

Macrame, taught by Sue Daly will be offered for 4 weeks. The class will be held on Mondays, 7:30-9 p.m. at Sanborn School. The fee is $3 and the class will begin April 28.

Yoga will be offered at two levels, Beginning and Intermediate. These classes are open to both women and men. They will be taught by Madlyn Pettit. Yoga will be held at the High School on Wednesdays and will run for 6 weeks. The Beginning class will be 7-8 p.m. and Intermediate 8-9 p.m. Mrs. Pettit suggests that students wear very loose fitting clothing and bring their own if possible. Tuition is $3. Classes will begin April 30.

Spanish 3, taught by Dominic Rossi will be offered for 5 weeks. This class was scheduled in the Winter Booklet as part of the previous registration, however, there are still openings for those who wish to improve their fluency and grammar. The class is on Thursdays from 7:30-9:30 p.m. at West Junior High and costs $5. It will begin April 3.

For further information please call the Recreation / Community Schools office.

Revolution Info Requested

As part of the program commemorating the Bicentennial of the American Revolution, the Andover Bicentennial Commission is planning the publication of a small volume on Andover's participation in the American Revolution.

While Andover does not figure in the general histories as the site of military engagements in the same way as Lexington, Concord, Charlestown or Arlington (Menotomy), nevertheless, its citizens were wholeheartedly in the midst of events and it is the purpose of the projected volume to bring this out for the benefit of the present generation. It will be particularly pointed toward commemorating the work of individuals in those events.

While the editor has available to him substantially all published material on the subject, as well as the town records covering the period, he would be very grateful to receive any anecdotal material concerning individuals which may be available in the records of the families in town descended from those earlier times.

Even such tales as may have been passed down by word of mouth and which may by some be considered apocryphal, would be welcomed by the editor, Col. Edward M. Harris, who can be reached at 311 South Main St.

How to save money with a bang.

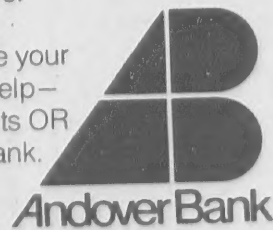

Frank Tuminelli, an Assistant Vice President and Loan Officer at Andover Bank, decided he simply had to do something about the skyrocketing cost of home heat. So he hammered insulation into his attic. Now he enjoys a warm home with cool savings.

To reward himself for a job well done, Frank puts the money he saves on heating bills into an account at Andover Bank. Like all our savings accounts at Andover, it earns the highest interest the law allows.

If you'd like to insulate your home and want some help—helpful construction hints OR financial aid—talk to Frank. His ideas could warm your heart.

Intermediates Add N.H. Title To List

The West Parish intermediate basketball team, already regular-season champions of the Lawrence Jewish Community Center Biddy League, added the annual Hampstead, N. H. Invitational Tournament title to its list of 1974-75 accomplishments last weekend.

West Parish swept to three straight convincing victories over New Hampshire competition enroute to the crown, boosting the team's overall seasonal record to a flashy 22-1.

The Andover-based sixth grade quintet opened its tourney test with a 37-21 decision over Atkinson, N. H. last Friday night.

In the semifinal showdown Saturday afternoon, West Parish raced to a 45-21 win over the host Hampstead, N. H. club.

The championship final against Plaistow, N. H. proved to be the easiest of the three games, as West raced to a lopsided 56-17 victory.

Atkinson Falls, 37-21

West Parish experienced some trouble getting untracked in the opener, as solo first quarter buckets by Todd Zimmerman and lefty Bobby Heidt kept the locals locked in a 4-4 tie with Atkinson.

However, with high-scoring guard Chris Doherty tossing in 6 of his tournament high 46 points, West Parish pulled away from a 14-6 halftime edge on the quick Atkinson crew.

The winners continued to increase their lead in the third period, as Ted Kelley, Tim Plass and Heidt combined for 11 points and a 27-10 West Parish bulge.

The rivals traded baskets over the final six-minute stanza. Several Atkinson players unloaded long bombs, while Tim Plass and Dick Kelley led the answering fire for West with 4 and 3 points respectively.

Hoop Finals Saturday

Finals in the First Annual Andover-North Andover YMCA Basketball Tournaments for boys of the two towns will be played this Saturday, March 22 at the new YMCA gym, 165 Haverhill St. The PeeWee (12 and under) finals will be played at 10 a.m. with St. Michael's opposing a YMCA entry. The Junior Tourney finals (14 years and under) will be played at 1 p.m. and will feature the Celtics vs. West Parish.

Last Friday tournament competition began with St. Augustine's defeating the Crusaders in the opening Pee Wee Tournament program 40-10. Steve Smith, Mike White and Roger St. Amand each scored 6 points. In the other game an Andover YMCA entry defeated Pack 76 Webelos 65-8. Ira Gold scored 24 points for the "Y" group and Gary Elwell was high man for Pack 76 with 8 points.

Competition continued on the 15th, Saturday with semi-finals matches. St. Michael's topped St. Augustine's 31-29. Bill McAvoy and Steve Adiconis scored 19 points between them for St. Michael's. Jack Horan was high man for St. Augustine's with 11 points. The Andover "Y" entry defeated St. Robert's 30-12 with Ira Gold top man for both teams with 16 for the winners, and Ted Liszewski scored 6 points for the losing club.

The Junior Tournament semi-finals was played last Saturday, March 15 with the Celtics outscoring St. Michael's 71-23 in the first game. Ed Collins dropped 16 points for the Celtics and Dave Welch scored 10 for St. Michael's. In the other bracket West Parish topped Jocco's Raiders 72-55. Joe Terrior led the West Parish team with 33 points and Steve Serley scored 32 for the Raiders.

Chris Doherty and Tim Plass shared game-high scoring honors with 10 points apiece, while Ted Kelley and Bob Heidt caged 6 markers each.

Dick Kelley pumped in 3 points and Todd Zimmerman netted that first basket of the game.

Ted Kelley also pulled down 11 rebounds and stole the ball four times, while Tim Plass hauled in seven caroms.

Tom Beaumier corralled seven rebounds, handed out a number of pretty assists and forced numerous Atkinson turnovers with his hustling defense in the disciplined 2-1-2 zone set-up.

As a team West Parish swished 9-of-18 free throws and snared 27 rebounds.

Hampstead Axed, 45-21

Host Hampstead, probably the second best team in the tournament, met West Parish after trimming Derry, N.H. 40-30 in its opening game.

The Hampstead squad enjoyed a slight height advantage over West, but failed to penetrate the locals' defense for many high percentage shots.

The game seasawed back-and-forth during a tight first quarter, which ended in an 8-8 standoff after Hampstead had enjoyed two brief leads.

Ted Kelley flipped through 3 points, while Chris Doherty and Tim Plass chipped in single field goals to power the West Attack in the opening canto.

West Parish was sitting atop a slim 12-11 lead following a Ted Kelley free throw midway through the second period, but then Kelley picked up his fourth personal foul and was forced to sit down.

Todd Zimmerman came off the bench to blow the game open, hitting three successive 15-20 foot set shots and making a key defensive play to boost West Parish into an 18-11 lead.

Hampstead became disorganized for a brief period, and by halftime it was 22-11 West Parish following an 11-0 scoring burst by the locals over the latter part of the quarter.

Chris Doherty really went to town in the third canto, pouring through 11 points after Tom Beaumier banked in a bucket on the opening tap play.

Doherty's splurge propelled West to an insurmountable 35-21 edge after three frames.

Chris continued his lane-driving, breakaway offensive style in the fourth quarter, stuffing 6 additional points while Ted Kelley and Tim Plass dropped in solo baskets for the 45-21 final total.

"Quarterback" Doherty finished the game with 19 points and several assists.

Ted Kelley, who sat out 1½ quarters because he was saddled with four fouls, still bagged 7 points and corralled a game-high 13 rebounds.

Tim Plass worked hard underneath for 6 points and 10 rebounds, as the big center held his own against an equally-tall Hampstead pivotman.

Todd Zimmerman pocketed his three clutch baskets and collected three rebounds.

Bobby Heidt popped in 5 points and joined Doherty in harassing the Hampstead guards into several poor passes and hurried shots.

Tom Beaumier was again an unsung hero, hauling down eight rebounds and adding three steals and superlative defense to his 2 points.

Dick Kelley also played a fine floor game for West Parish.

The winners were able to launch 66 shots as a team against Hampstead, playing their patented running game throughout. The West also cleared 38 rebounds off both backboards in the 24 minutes.

Plaistow Stung, 56-17

Playing looser and with more confidence than in its previous two games, West Parish clinched the tournament championship over Plaistow with a 20-2 outburst in the first quarter.

West experienced no difficulty with Plaistow's full-court, man-to-man pressure defense, breaking it repeatedly with the solid ball-handling and passing of Chris Doherty, Bobby Heidt and Ted Kelley.

Kelley sparked the first stanza explosion with 10 points, hitting 4-of-6 shots from the floor and 2-for-2 at the charity stripe.

Tim Plass and Chris Doherty dumped in 4 markers apiece, while Bob Heidt stuffed a single bucket.

The lead jumped to 31-10 at halftime, as Chris Doherty fired in 5 points and Ted Kelley contributed a fancy, twisting two-pointer.

Guards Heidt and Doherty intercepted a series of Plaistow passes in the third session, netting 6 points each as West drilled the nets for 17 points and a 48-13 bulge after three. One of Bobby Heidt's shots was a 25-foot banker from beyond the top of the key area.

Tim Plass muscled home a pair of baskets in the fourth quarter, while Dick Kelley and Chris Doherty dunked other floor shots and the final buzzer sounded with West Parish atop a 56-17 score.

West finished with four players in twin digits for this game. Chris Doherty canned 17 points, Ted Kelley 16, Bobby Heidt 11 and Tim Plass 10 points.

Tom Beaumier snagged seven rebounds, Ted Kelley six and Plass six.

Chris Doherty and Bobby Heidt divided 10 steals between themselves, while Beaumier added three thefts.

West Parish hit an excellent 25-of-52 floor shots and went 6-for-11 from the charity stripe in the title game.

Stats

During its three tourney games West Parish outscored the opposition, 138-59, averaging 46.0 per game itself and surrendering 19.7 ppg.

Chris Doherty hooped 46 points, Ted Kelley 29, Tim Plass 26 and Bobby Heidt 22 as the top four scorers.

Schedule

the West Parish intermediates (6th graders) return to action this Sunday, opening the J.C.C. Biddy League playoffs with a semifinal game against fourth-place St. Theresa's of Lawrence. The team will also play in other tournaments and will have several more non-league games before the season closes.

Coaching the tournament team were Rick Harrison and Neil Zimmerman.

Swimmers Divide Honors

The Andover-North Andover YMCA's four boys' competitive swimming teams, the Sea Stars, divided honors with the Lynn YMCA representatives last Saturday in meets contested in the local YMCA's new six-lane pool. The Andover-North Andover swimmers lost to Lynn in the two older divisions as the "A" swimmers (15-17 years) were defeated 54-20 and the "B" swimmers (13-14 years) lost 38-14. The younger boys fared much better as the "C" swimmers (11-12 years) won 52-24 and the "D" swimmers (10 and under) edged out their rivals 36-32. The YMCA coaching staff is headed by Joyce Milligan assisted by Bob Tatem, Chris Champagne, Mark Manley and Diane Wright.

Outstanding swimmer for the "C" team was Chris Donahue who won the 100 yd. individual medley in 1:25.5 and the 50 yd. backstroke in 38.3. Jim Lacourse won the 100 yd. freestyle in 1:15.0, Matt Carroll won the 50 yd. butterfly in 44.3, Jeff Roy won the 50 yd. freestyle in 31.5 and Detlef Westphalen won the 200 yd. freestyle in 2:46.1. The locals won the 200 yd. freestyle relay in 2:24.8 with Roy, Carroll, Westphalen and Richard Issenberg. Ernest Costello won two second places.

Mike McCullom was a double winner in class "D". He took the 50 yd. freestyle 34.8, the 100 yd. freestyle in 1:19.3 and was on the winning in 2:38.0. Steve Donahue was the only other winning swimmer taking the 50 yd. backstroke in 41.1 but several boys won places to contribute points to the winning team effort including: Mark and Dan Paradis and Christer Mattsson.

In the "B" division Kevin

Hanawalt was outstanding as he captured the 100 yd. freestyle in 1:03.0 and the 200 yd. freestyle in 2:25.8. Brad Reichter was second high man with two individual places. In the "A" division Len Tatem and Bill Sanchez were high point scorers with two second places each and Kevin Carroll and Doug Greenlee also contributed to the team scoring.

Intermediate's Jumble Continues

By Rick Harrison

The Intermediate Division of the Andover Church Basketball League continued its busy end-of-season schedule this past week, and entering last night's action St. Augustine G, four-time defending champ West Parish A and St. Robert's C were still refusing to lose.

However, that had to change last night when St. Augustine G and West A knocked heads. West A and St. Robert's C have a makeup game listed for later this week, and next Monday it's St. Augustine G battling St. Robert's C.

Meanwhile, the rest of the pack continues to knock each other off with unpredictable results.

Wednesday's Action

St. Augustine G kept its record unblemished a week ago Wednesday night, stuffing St. Augustine's C 24-12 as six players entered the scoring act.

Ted Kelley and Mike Yuska paced the tri-leaders with 5 points each while Tim Cokery, Dick Kelley and Steve Parker swished 4 markers apiece. Mike Curley netted a first quarter bucket to complete the G-team offense.

Countering for St. Augustine C was Jim Torrisi who dunked 4 points. Chris Bedell and Jay Dilorio pocketed solo buckets, while Geoff Reichart and Mark Paradis swished a brace of free throws each.

West Parish A won its 23rd straight, pulling away from St. Robert's B in the fourth quarter to register a 33-7 victory.

Steve Doherty pumped through 12 points, Chris Doherty 10, Bob Meier 7 and Bruce Belbin 4 markers for West A, which led 17-7 after three before exploding for a 16-0 last stanza spread.

Gregg Praetz popped in 3 points for St. Robert's A, Howie Lebowitz 2 and Neal Bradley 2. The losers missed high-scoring Jeff Nicastro who was sidelined with homework.

St. Robert's C had first-half problems with pesky Baptist, but untracked itself in the last two periods for a 35-15 win.

Lefty John McNamara poured through 13 points to guide the undefeated victors. Ira Gold bagged 9 points, Todd Zimmerman 7, Jamie Lebowitz 4 and Mike Damphousse connected on two fourth stanza charities.

Steve Rathbun propelled Baptist with 7 markers. Barry Bloom banged home 5 points, Jimmy Handley 2 and Tom Stedman delivered a solo foul shot.

Red-hot Ballard Vale United continued its rapid improvement, edging past tough St. Robert's D, 25-22.

Southpaw Bobby Heidt once again powered the United charge with 16 points. Carolyn Darling canned 6, Bob Sutton 2 and Russ Bird one free throw.

Red-headed Ben Bram dumped in 15 points for the losers, while Vinnie Keegan pocketed 6 and Richie Adams banked home a last session charity toss.

Ballard Vale was coasted atop a 21-10 lead after three periods, but St. Robert's D caught fire in the finale and almost pulled it out.

St. Augustine A pulled off a minor upset, leading all the way to hand St. Robert's A its third loss, 22-13.

Fred Foote, Steve Smith and Dave Gusmini led the well-balanced St. Augustine operation with 6 points apiece. Dave Fluet and Jerry Fox chipped in second quarter buckets.

St. Robert's A had 7 points from Steve Lietch, 4 by Craig Lebowitz and a single basket from hustling towhead Paul Tassanari.

Christ Church unleashed its Crusaders on West Parish B for an exciting 16-14 conquest.

Trailing 11-8 after three quarters, the Crusaders rallied behind Ken Taylor who stuffed 7 of his 9 points in the last six minutes. Mark Rogers pitched in 5 markers, and Dave Menard had a key first period bucket.

Center Tim Plass was a one-man wrecking crew for West B, pouring through a game-high 14 points.

St. Augustine B placed six kids in the scoring column for a 25-8 decision over South Church.

Paul Sirois muscled through 8 first session points to lead the way. Ten-year-old Bill Caselden swished 6, Brian Moriarty 4, Pat Beaudine 3, Tom Walsh 2 and Mike Beaudine 2 points.

Picking up the slack for South were Bruce Barnhill who stuffed 6 points, and Alan Demrow with a third quarter connection.

The tightest contest of the night saw St. Augustine D pull out a 22-20 win over St. Augustine E in the final quarter.

Mike White flipped in a personal high of 14 points for the winners, including 4 during the pivotal fourth period. Pat O'Connor rammed through 5 tallies and E.J. Perry accounted for 3 points.

The E-team followed the lead of Dave Robinson with 10 points, Kevin O'Meara 8 before fouling out, and Kevin Donnelly who notched a last period basket to keep it exciting.

St. Augustine F returned to the winning track with a 34-10 victory over Free Church.

Joe Zemis tossed in 8 points, Jack Horan and Dave Barker netted 6 each, Dave Carignan and Steve Farrington fired through 4 apiece, and solo baskets were dunked by John Kramer, John Atanasoff and Chris Valcourt.

Monday's Busy Slate

Nine more Intermediate tilts were staged last Monday evening at both the West Junior High and Doherty School gyms.

West Parish A (13-0) made it 24 successive ACBL wins and 47 in the last 48 league starts, trimming St. Augustine E 37-20.

High-scoring guard Chris Doherty was the big noise with 14 points, followed closely by brother Steve Doherty with 9 and Bruce Belbin 7. Ten-year-old Danny Kimball popped in 4, Bob Meier 2 and Glen Johnson canned a charity toss.

St. Augustine E looked towards Dave Robinson once again, and he responded with 9 points, Kevin O'Meara stuffed 5, Kevin Donnelly 4 and Mike Gardner pumped in a last period bucket.

Despite the absence of high-scoring Ted Kelley because of illness, St. Augustine G (14-0) battled past upset-minded St. Augustine D, 33-25.

Carrying the bulk of the load was big Mike Yuska with 22 points, while Mike Curley jammed through 6, Tim Cokery 3 and Steve Parker a pair.

Roger St. Amand chalked up double figures with 10 for the losers. Mike White drilled home 4, E.J. Perry 7, John Ingemi 2, Pat O'Connor a free throw and Ed Trainor one charity.

The G-team struggled but managed quarter leads of 8-3, 17-15 and 25-21.

St. Robert's C (13-0) submerged St. Robert's B (10-4), 31-14, as John McNamara continued his climb towards another divisional scoring crown by dropping through a game-high 19 points.

Ira Gold and Jamie Lebowitz were next in line with 4 points apiece, Tim McLean bagged 3 and Richie Griffin had a first quarter foul shot.

Jeff Nicastro returned to the B-team lineup to score 8 points, while Howie Lebowitz garnered 4 and Tommy Daley contributed a last period field goal.

St. Robert's D handed West Parish B its eighth loss by four or fewer points, nudging the hard-luck losers 17-14.

Ben Bram led a fourth quarter comeback which erased a 12-8 deficit, and he closed with 9 points. Vinnie Keegan caged 4 points, and key last period floor shots also came from Richie Adams and Ted Liszewski.

Tim Plass once again powered West B by notching 6 points. Solo baskets were collected by Scott Nolin, Jeff Saulnier, Mark Newton and Steve Johnson.

St. Augustine A raced to a 9-1 first period lead, but had to hold on for dear life at the end before eking out a 15-12 win over St. Augustine C.

Dave Gusmini was top marksman for the A-crew with 5 points. Chipping in with 2-pointers were Fred Foote, Steve Smith, Tim Bolduc, Jeff Fleming and Dave Fluet.

Jay Dilorio sparked the upset bid for the C-quintet with 6 markers. Chris Bedell swished a pair of free throws, while Jim Torrisi and Geoff Reichart produced single field goals.

Ballard Vale United did all of its scoring in the first three quarters, stopping at 29 for a 29-7 conquest of Free Church.

Bobby Heidt emerged as top gunner with 17 points, 9 of them in the opening canto. Carolyn Darling pushed through 6 first-half markers, while single buckets were stuffed by Jay McLeod, Russ Bird and Robbie Robinson.

Alan Green hooked in 3 points for Free. Scott Lindstrom and Craig Horgan also had the eagle eye once apiece.

Another tough-luck squad, St. Augustine B, dropped its third game by three points when talented St. Robert's A held on for a 27-24 victory.

Steve Lietch guided the winners' assault with 11 points. Alex Lanio added 6, Dick Danner 5, Danny Saunders 3 and Paul Tassanari a pair of charity tosses.

Tom Walsh was hot again with 12 points for St. Augustine B. Paul Sirois followed "Country Boy" with 8. Brian Moriarty and Bill Caselden rounded out the attack with 2 tallies each.

St. Augustine F spread the scoring among seven players enroute to an easy 32-12 conquest of South Church.

Jack Horan powered the offense with 6 first quarter points and 8 for the game. Tom Haskard, Chris Valcourt and Dave Carignan dunked 6 markers each. Single floor connections were netted by Dave Barker, John Atanasoff and Joe Zemis.

South's most prolific players, Bruce Barnhill, drilled the strings for 8 points. Pete "Downtown" Zlatev and Art Dunleavy added buckets.

Baptist regained its winning touch, snapping a three-game slide with a 22-13 win over the Christ Church Crusaders.

Steve Rathbun pumped through 9 points for Baptist, while Barry Bloom and Chris Rizzo flipped in 4 each. Barry Goodman stuffed 3 and Tom Stedman unloaded a second period basket.

Answering for Christ Church were Mark Rogers with 5, Dave Marsden 4 and Kenny Taylor 4 points.

West Parish A Wins Three Way Title Battle

By Rick Harrison

West Parish A fought its way through a three-way championship playoff, whipping both St. Augustine C and West Parish B, to capture the 1974-75 Senior Division title in the Andover Church Basketball League this week.

West A had finished the regular season locked in a tie with the other two clubs, as each posted identical 7-2 overall records.

In the semifinal playoff, the champs overcame a one-point fourth quarter deficit to blitz St. Augustine C 28-0 in the last stanza enroute to a 58-31 triumph.

That pushed West A into the championship final against West Parish B, and once again the victors came from behind in the second half to register a 42-33 decision.

In one other contest St. Augustine A belted St. Robert's B by a 40-21 count, thus nailing down fourth place and securing the final post-season playoff berth.

The Senior Division is slated to conclude all activities over the next week, following two rounds of playoffs among the top four teams.

Fourth Quarter Blowout

West Parish A and St. Augustine C fought tooth-and-nail for three seesaw periods in their semifinal playoff showdown.

West A grabbed a 15-11 lead after one, paced by Randy Hayman with 6 points and Bill Hall who netted 4. Mark Sampson countered with 7 for St. Augustine.

With Sampson tossing through 6 additional points in the second canto, St. Augustine closed the gap to 23-21 by intermission.

Keith Sampson joined brother Mark in combining for 9 third quarter tallies, as St. Augustine C climbed into a slim 31-30 lead.

The incredible fourth quarter turned the game into a rout, and West A did it minus the scoring punch of Hayman who had fouled out. Bill Walsh of St. Augustine joined Hayman on the sidelines for the same reason, neutralizing the muscle deficiency in the pivot.

Andy Campbell and Bill Hall were the chief wreckers for West A in the final canto, bagging 9 and 8 points respectively.

The champs were also red-hot from the foul line, hitting a torrid 10-of-12 as St. Augustine committed numerous fouls out of sheer frustration and anger.

Campbell closed as the top West scorer with 15 points. Hall chipped in 14 and Harman stuffed 10 as the third twin digit marksman.

Everyone actually entered the act for the winners. Jeff Rosen hit 6 points, including 4 in the pivotal fourth stanza, while Mike Donahue and Chris Elliott pocketed 4 each for the game. Pete Newton had 3 markers and Mark Paro swished a brace of charities in the final session.

Mark Sampson emerged as game-high gunner for the losers, pumping in 18 points. Keith Sampson added 6 while solo buckets were launched by Dan Caselden, Dave Valley and Bill Walsh.

John Perowski completed the C-team attack with a third period free throw, while other stalwarts included John Walsh and Bob Oelwang.

Taking It All

In the title confrontation last

Monday night at West Junior High, West Parish A took a 9-6 first period lead.

Randy Hayman dunked 5 points and Chris Elliott 4, but countering with single baskets for West B were Dave Hill, Ed Goodman and divisional scoring king (179 points) Jeff Smith.

However, with Smith and Jim Wetterberg popping through 5 points each in the second frame, West B assumed a 19-15 halftime bulge.

The third quarter turned things around for good in West A's favor.

Bill Hall and Hayman chalked up 6 points apiece, as the titlists ran up a 15-2 scoring edge to take a 30-21 cushion.

Both squads checked off 12 fourth period points, with Dave Hill stuffing 6 for the B-team and Hayman tossing in 6 for the A-team.

Randy Hayman unloaded 18 points to capture game-high honors, and Bill Hall caged all 10 of his markers in the second half. Andy Campbell fired through 6 points, Chris Elliott 5 and Jeff Rosen 3.

The well-balanced West B charge featured 9-point efforts from Jeff Smith and Jim Wetterberg. Dave Hill canned 8, Eddie Goodman 6 and Steve Neyman banged home a second stanza charity toss.

Joel Smith and Gary Johnson also contributed hustling efforts for the losers, while Mark Paro, Mike Donahue and Pete Newton were other A-team stalwarts.

Securing Fourth Place

St. Augustine A stretched its winning streak through five straight starts, outscoring St. Robert's B in every quarter enroute to its 40-21 triumph.

The score read 5-4, 14-9 and 29-20 at the first three checkpoints, before St. Augustine A broke things wide open 11-1 over the final canto.

Jim Arnold was the key figure once again for the winners, dropping through 15 points. Jim Morin garnered 12, Tom Curtin 7, Bob Beaudine 4 and Rich Gusmini popped in a solo bucket for St. Augustine A.

Answering fire for St. Robert's B came from Mark Lalonde with 10, John Amboian 5, Dave Barrett 4 and Frank Griggs 2 points.

Key factors for the losers included the loss of Barrett via the foul route in the fourth quarter, and the fine defensive job done on usually high-scoring Griggs.

The Day My Copier Died

It was a day like every day,
With mail to mail and hell to pay,
Irreplaceable papers were inside
The day my costly copier died.

Midst pluck of panel and wrench of nut
We tried to clear the jam out, but T'was all in vain the office cried
The day my vaunted copier died.

Where did we fail, what had we done
To cause our copier not to run?
That Copilabs fellow had tried to tell
Me how the thing was shot to hell.

He'd said he'd fix it if we wanted
Despite it's shape he was undaunted.
Oh, if only I had said - Yes, do fix it, but, instead
He went away - He smiled and sighed
He knew without him, copiers died.

He had such an interesting card, too.

With "rookie" Paul Farnham pouring in four goals, veteran Len Foote adding his 29th and 30th red-lighters of the season, and goaltender Todd Bateson performing flawlessly in the net, the Andover Bantam 'A' traveling hockey team routed Durham, N.H. 9-0 last weekend at the University of New Hampshire.

The nine-goal outburst marked a single-game high for Coach Dick Neal's sextet this season, surpassing the previous top of seven in a 7-3 conquest of Hanover, N.H. back on January 11.

No less than 12 different players figured in the scoring with either a goal or an assist, as Andover snapped a brief two-game winless streak and boosted its overall record to 14-10-4.

"We completely dominated the game, making very few mistakes and playing near-perfect hockey," lauded Neal. "It was by far the best game of the season for us."

The contest also marked the return of defenseman Brian Bresnahan, who had been sidelined with a collapsed lung since the St. Alban's game at the tailend of the Canadian trip. Brian notched one assist against Durham.

First of Farnham's Four

Paul Farnham gave the locals a 1-0 lead in the first period, hitting a 12-footer at 7:34 after some crisp set-up passes from linemates Len Driscoll and Don St. Jean.

Driscoll came back at 3:14 of the second period for a 2-0 Andover edge, pumping home a second rebound into an open right corner for his 14th marker. This time Farnham and St. Jean collected the assists.

Less than two minutes later Len Foote chipped in his first of two. Read-guard Phil Weeks skimmed a pass from the point to Capt. Dave Farrell in the corner. Dave spotted Foote out front and the Durham goalie never had a prayer.

Farnham's second of the game upped the cushion to 4-0 at 9:48 of the middle stanza. It was the first of a pair of powerplay connections. Mike Derby carried to center-ice, fed the disc to left wing St. Jean, who in turn found Farnham cutting across the slot for a 10-footer.

Blowout

Andover continued to pour it on in the finale with five more lamplighters in the first eight minutes.

Jeff Redding pocketed his fifth of the season at 0:48, culminating a sharp passing play with a hard eight-foot wrister. Steve Curtis and Paul Keefe were credited with set-ups on the play.

Farnham completed a hat trick at 3:06, flipping home a rebound from in close with assists to St. Jean and Derby.

A mere 41 seconds later the same guy registered his 17th goal of the campaign. Len Driscoll made the play, stealing at center-ice and carrying the puck into the Durham zone prior to feeding Farnham in the slot area.

Foote's 30th at 6:01 jumped the difference to 8-0. Again Len was waiting in the slot for a corner pass, but this time it was John Sagaser doing the honors after Bresnahan pushed the puck up from the right point.

Steve Curtis' second red-lighter of the year polished off the romp at 7:48, just 27 seconds into Andover's third powerplay opportunity of the contest.

Keefe fed a rink-wide pass across the blue line to Mike

Anderson, who shoveled the disc in front where Curtis stuffed home a five-footer.

The goal was the 14th on the powerplay for the Andover contingent.

Schedule

As the 1974-75 season winds to a close, Andover was slated for a busy three game week.

Last Tuesday night, after TOWNSMAN presstime, Andover hosted rugged Worcester at Merrimack College. The visitors own the only shutout this season over Andover, blanking the locals 6-0 on January 24.

This Saturday at 9:30 a.m., Andover hosts Southern New Hampshire at Merrimack, and Sunday at 1:45 p.m. Methuen will battle Andover at the Brooks School rink in North Andover.

Stats

Andover now sports a 7-2-3 record on home ice and a 7-8-1 road ledger.

Bateson's shutout against Durham was the second for the locals, going along with Dave Hill's 3-0 blanking of Concord, N.H. earlier.

Overall in 28 games Andover has outscored the opposition by a 107-99 margin.

Other current good produce buys are Maine potatoes, yellow onions, green cabbage, turnips, carrots, chicory, escarole, iceberg and romaine lettuce, oranges and grapefruit. At meat counters, ground beef, chicken and turkeys are among the better values. And look for sale prices in fish such as cod, haddock, pollock and flounder, which should be featured at markets during the Lenten season.

St. Robert's Has Perfect Season

Champion Hoopsters

By Rick Harrison

The St. Robert's Braves left absolutely no doubt in anyone's mind who the best team was this winter in the Junior Division (ages 8 and 9) of the Andover Church Basketball League, coasting to easy victories in their final two regular season games at the East Junior High gym.

The Braves thus finished the campaign with a perfect 10-0 record, joining the St. Augustine Globetrotters of 1973-74 as the only undefeated clubs in the brief history of the Junior Division.

While piling up the 10 victories, the Braves poured through 220 points and held the opposition to just 44.

The Braves belted the St. Augustine Pistons, 35-4, two weeks ago and followed with a 26-0 whitewash of the Celtics.

The runner-up St. Robert's Sonics (7-3) split their last two contests, whipping the Celts 21-4 before bowing 14-12 to the third-place St. Robert's Knicks (6-4) in the finale.

The St. Augustine Bullets, who caught fire at the tailend of the season, went out in style with a three-game winning streak including final triumphs over the Knicks (13-4) and the Pistons (11-4).

"Once they won that first game it made believers out of them," explained Coach Charlie Wiseman. "The kids really played fine basketball the last three weeks of the season."

Bolan and Vickers

The Braves featured a pair of players in double figures enroute to their 35-4 conquest of the Pistons.

Marc Bolan tossed in a personal high of 16 points for the champs, while consistent Billy Vickers added 12. Robbie Slayton pumped through 5 markers and Bobby French swished a first quarter bucket.

Answering fire for the Pistons was provided by Jeff Fox, who flipped in a third period basket, and Robbie Harrison with single free throws in the first and fourth sessions.

Sonics Get Hot

The Sonics found themselves locked in a 2-2 standoff with the Celtics two weeks ago after one quarter, but the scoring punch provided by Tony Romano, Ed Damphousse and Jim Terrion helped boost the runners-up to a safe 17-2 advantage after three cantos.

Romano, son of the former Tewksbury High varsity hoop coach, grabbed game-high point honors with 9. Terrion was a step behind with 8 points, while Damphousse and Neil Saunders chipped in single field goals.

Also helping with hustling defensive performances were Tom O'Brien, Jim Pace and Todd Stein.

The Celtics received 2 points apiece from Scott Robichaud and John Baer, while other standouts were Grant Van Aken, Steve Holt, Charlie Ziegenbein, John Healy and Jimmy Lowe.

Bullets Hit Target

The Bullets kept rolling with their 13-4 conquest of the Knicks, thanks to the 1-2 scoring punch of Ken Doherty and Mark Nardone with 7 and 6 points respectively. Contributing excellent all-around games for the winners were John Young, Jimmy Wiseman, Mike Surette, Rich Quintal, Larry Torrisi and Danny Paradis.

The Knicks did all their scoring in the second half, as Steve Cove bagged a third quarter bucket and solo charity tosses were pocketed by Scott Zimmerman and Phil Puccia.

Also starring for the Knicks were Joe Puccia, Kevin Byrne and Todd Sleath.

Everybody Scores

The Braves managed to get all seven players into the scoring act during their 26-0 final victory over the Celtics.

Divisional scoring champ Billy Vickers, son of the Andover High baseball coach, once again reached twin digits for the seventh time this season by pouring through 10 first-half points.

Marc Bolan and Robbie Slayton slipped in 4 markers each, and single baskets were popped through by Doug Lindquist, Bobby French, Matt Butterworth and J. R. Lindquist.

The Celts were unable to dent the strings, but leading the way against the champs were John Baer, Charlie Ziegenbein and John Healy.

Bullets Win No. 3

The Bullets closed with an 11-4 decision over the surprised Pistons, who belted this same crew 16-2 in the seasonal opener for both back on December 17.

John Young powered a well-balanced Bullets' offensive assault with 4 points. Canning single baskets were Danny Paradis, Mark Nardone and Ken Doherty, while Pat McLarney converted a second quarter free throw.

The Pistons countered with floor connections from Charlie Frazette and Jeff Fox.

Also hustling for the St. Augustine quintet were Ken Flynn, Mike Winterson, Kevin Flynn and Dave Caiati.

Knicks Pull Upset

The Knicks made it three victories in their final four games, nipping the Sonics 14-12. The only previous losses by the Sonics were to the Braves.

Jon Bram, Scott Zimmerman and Steve Cove banged home 4 points each for the victors, while Phil Puccia netted a 2-pointer. Jim Griggs sparkled on defense for the Knicks.

Tom O'Brien stuffed 4 points for the Sonics in their swansong, while Tony Romano and Neil Saunders added 3 apiece. Jim Terrion dunked one bucket.

emerged as the Junior Division scoring king with 8 points. He was one of four players to pass the 50-point plateau this season.

A close runner-up in the scoring chase was Tony Romano, who scored 7 points. The Braves hooped the Jim Terrion of the Sonics.

Vickers' 41 field goals in that category. Romano's eight free throw versions led that category.

Both Bolan and Terrion through 16 points in the game for the best while Romano noted the contest.

The Bullets had a widespread scoring different players at least one point during the game.

emerged as the Junior Division scoring king with 85 points, and he was one of four players to surpass the 50-point plateau during the season.

A close runner-up in the point chase was Tony Romano with 74 markers, while Marc Bolan of the Braves hooped 61 points and Jim Terrion of the Sonics netted 57.

Vickers' 41 fieldgoals were tops in that category, while Romano's eight free throw conversions led that department.

Both Bolan and Terrion poured through 16 points in a single game for the best solo efforts, while Romano notched 14 in one contest.

The Bullets had the most widespread scoring, as 10 different players collected at least one point during the season.

Schedule

The Junior Division concluded all activities last Tuesday night, after TOWNSMAN presstime, with a foul shooting contest and All-Star Game at the West Junior High.

The All-Star Game matched the team champion Braves against the two best players from the other five clubs.

Comments

Divisional directors Bob Pavin and Colin Butterworth expressed their thanks to all who helped out during the successful season.

Coaching the six teams were Eliot Bolan (Braves), Charlie Wiseman (Bullets), Bryan Goodman (Celtics), Phil Puccia (Knicks), Jim Flynn (Pistons) and Tom O'Brien (Sonics).

Assistant Coaches included Rupert Lowe and Jim Holt (Celtics), along with Charlie Wiseman, Jr. (Pistons).

Mullet, Strong Top Men's Lg. Scorers

The Andover Men's Basketball League season ended last Thursday evening with games played at the high school gym. Topping the 19-32 Division were the high scoring Panthers while the Sweepers took top honors in the Over 33 League.

Final games saw the Dudes post a 55-47 victory over the Drivers. Dudes scoring was led by Pat Emery with 16 points followed by Jeff Englund 14 and Wendall Tucker with 10. The Drivers attack consisted mainly of high scorer Pete Mullet's 21.

Dohertys surprised the No Names by coasting to a 62-41 win. O'Neill with 20 and Frank Morris with 16 paced the victors. Only player in double figures for the No Names was Ted Sarnowski with 14.

Having clinched top spot, the Panthers continued their winning ways by edging the Hornets 46-36. Dan Shlakis with 14 points led the victors. Lew Jones hooped 12 for the Hornets.

The Sweepers, having iced top spot a week ago, were awarded a forfeit victory over the Warriors.

Playing up to their potential, the Strokes scoring machine unwound to hand Danas a 49-27 beating. Bob MacPherson with 14 and Jack Ronan with 10 paced the winners. Danas got a 10 point output from Dennis Hughes.

Big surprise of the evening saw the Pick Ups defeat second place Embassy 49-28. Dave Morehead tallied 22 points to almost single handedly gain the Pick Ups victory. Hall scored 18 for Embassy in a losing cause.

Leading scorers for the 74-75 season were announced at the close of last Thursday's games. Pete Mullet led all scorers in the 19-32 Division with an average 16.6 points per game. Don Strong of the Embassy averaged 18.3 points per game in the Over 33 Division.

Athletic Programs Added

The Andover Athletic Department will be adding nine activities to the program beginning September 1975.

Girls Junior High Sports - Field Hockey, Basketball, Track and Field will be part of the Sports Program at East and West Junior High School. Interscholastic competition with Phillips Academy, Chelmsford and Methuen are planned.

Interscholastic Volleyball at the High School will provide competition with other Merrimack Valley Conference Teams. Volleyball will be a fall sport.

Co-ed Swim Club - Swimming both competitively and recreationally will be conducted at the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational School Pool. The Swim Club will be conducted during the winter season.

Co-ed Ski Club - will be conducted similar to the Swim Club. Competitive and Recreational skiing will be offered to the students at the High School level.

All nine activities involve girls with two of the activities involving boys. The purpose is to provide a more balanced program between boys and girls sports for next year.

Palm Sunday Concert

The Nativity Committee and Reverend John Bartos will present Miss Mattie Mangrum, dramatic lyric soprano, in concert on Palm Sunday, March 23, at the First Baptist Church, Haverhill.

Miss Mangrum is a 1975 graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, winner of Shriner Competition - National in 1969 in Baltimore and a 1974 finalist in Young Artists Competition. She gave the premier performance of "Madame Alberta K. Johnsen" in the Harvard Loeb Drama Center's production.

Celery and salad greens are good produce values this week as harvesting areas get closer to Boston and transportation costs are less. Vegetable prices should come down, says the Dept. of Agriculture.

While celery, chicory, escarole, romaine and iceberg lettuce are all excellent salad ingredients, there are many good ways to enjoy celery as a cooked vegetable.

Braised celery, for example, is a classic French dish (celeris braises) served at many fine restaurants that can be easily prepared at home for a more economical price.

Celery is a natural for creamed and clear soups and a perfect use for the leafy tops. Celery leaves will also add a dash of flavor to vegetables or seafood as they cook.

Tax Picture

Taking a line from current social conversation these days, there's good news and bad news on the municipal scene.

Good news is in the category that the prospective tax rate for the current year will be increased by only $1, as matters stand after perusal of budgetary requests by the town's administrators.

Bad news is in the predicted figures for the years ahead which indicate that Andover's tax rate could spiral to $64 and $66.

The predictions of the tax rate for the years ahead is based on some concrete figuring done by the town's administrators, and while it is conceivable that some of the increased costs can be chipped away, it seems inevitable that municipal costs are destined for substantial increase after this year.

Under the heading of good news, is the current prediction that if the recommendations of the selectmen, school committee and finance committee are followed at town meeting, set to get underway a week from Monday, the tax rate will jump only $1. This could be even less with some more budgetary examination before Monday, March 31.

Bicentennial

Andover's Bicentennial committee is working diligently toward an appropriate observance of this community's tribute to the nation's 200th anniversary.

The selectmen, this week, agreed that the plans of the committee are worthy and approved inclusion of a request for $17,000 in funds to be expended over the next three years, in the town meeting warrant this year.

Under the direction of Mrs. Norma Gammon, the general chairman, the committee is considering various events to appropriately note the anniversary, as well as Andover's part in the nation's heritage.

Their thoughts and ideas appear to be on a proper course.

Andover is rich in historic lore. It is a community which has responded to the nation's call ever since Revolutionary days.

In the planning process, no doubt much will be accumulated to significantly note Andover's contributions and also to record such for future generations.

The committee in an effort to adequately plan for the bicentennial is asking the co-operation of the townspeople, not only to assist with activities already planned but also to provide ideas.

In an effort to assist this effort, the TOWNSMAN, this week is providing a form for residents to indicate their willingness to assist, as well as present ideas.

The form can be clipped and forwarded to Mrs. Norma Gammon, 115 Abbot St., Andover, Mass. 01810.

To make Andover's program a success, participation and suggestions are necessary. We recommend taking the time to be a participant by filling out the form below.

Further Comments:

This puts the annual levy back to where it was prior to this past year.

In order to get to this point, the elected and appointed officials working with school and town administrators have spent considerable time and effort in examining budgets in full detail.

One can be assured that the financial requests for the various town departments being presented to town meeting this year, contain no so-called "fat."

After several hours of concentrated effort, the final budget to be presented to town meeting has been reduced from the $4-$5 increase as proposed back in January.

This is a commendable accomplishment in difficult economic times.

It must also be realized that a considerable amount of the town's "cushion" the free cash account, will be tapped substantially to accomplish the task.

Such action will make budget planning for the next fiscal year difficult, and has been taken into consideration by the administration in its financial prospectus for fiscal 1977 and 1978.

Hopefully continued effort in the year ahead will temper the gloomy tax prospects as now presented.

Off The Top Of The Desk.

Andover School Committee Chairman Frank Griggs temporarily relinquished his chair, Tuesday night, so he could legally make a motion - - to congratulate the North Andover School Committee for its championship basketball team.

The Methuen board had sent Andover such a nongratulatory note last fall when Andover won the Football Superbowl.

A couple of youngsters went to the North Andover High tournament finals in Worcester Saturday night well prepared.

Tucked safely under their arms as they prepared for the bus trip was a loaf of French bread, which we trust didn't make it all the way to Worcester and back.

A good sign of spring, along with the first Robin, the crocus popping through, etc., is the setting out of playground equipment, which the North Andover public works department began doing this week.

Adding to the feeling that Spring is certainly in the air, was the doffing of top coats, as evidenced by the shoppers and businessmen in downtown Andover early this week.

The air is still a bit nippy, but many apparently share the feeling of greeting the advent of more pleasant weather by putting aside, if only briefly, the heavier garments of winter.

"Seeing Stars," a course in telescopic astronomy, begins April 1 in the Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science.

Intended for those who own a small telescope and those who are considering the purchase of one, the course teaches effective use of the instrument as well as how to use it with cameras for photos of distant celestial objects.

Weather permitting, classes are held on the Planetarium roof, with some sessions inside the Planetarium.

The course will meet on eight successive Tuesday evenings, from 7:30 to 9 o'clock. It is open to persons aged 16 and above, at a fee of $26 ($22 for Family and Contributing Members of the Museum). A prerequisite is a general astronomy course or the permission of the instructor.

For further information and registration, call the Planetarium.

A free copy of its 1975-76 Legislative Directory is available to anyone who contacts the Massachusetts Taxpayers Foundation at 145 Tremont St., Boston, 02111 or calls (617) 357-8500.

The Directory lists state senators and representatives by city or town, alphabetically and by their committee assignments.

It also includes the state's constitutional officers, congressional delegation, a glossary of legislative terms, committee hearing schedules, and a section on how to contact legislators along with much other helpful information.

Boston Bruins President Weston W. Adams, Jr. recently received a Massachusetts Bicentennial Commission banner from State officials at the Boston Garden.

Presenting the 8 by 12 foot banner, which will hang at the Garden for the two year celebration of the state's Bicentennial, were Massachusetts Senate Bicentennial Chairman Chester G. Atkins (D-Acton), Massachusetts House Bicentennial Chairman Vincent J. Piro (D-Somerville) and Massachusetts Bicentennial Commission Executive Director Edward A. McColgan.

Down the Years with The Townsman

75 Years Ago - March, 1900

The selectmen organized this week with William Goldsmith named chairman. First action of the new board was to name William L. Frye police chief at a salary of $65 monthly. The former chief, George H. Mears will serve as night officer at $60 monthly.

The work of improvement on the interior of the building over O.P. Chase's and Henry McLawlin's stores owned by J.W. Barnard, is nearly completed. It is now being let as apartments. It will be called "The Belmont" and a sign designating it as such has been placed in position.

Under the auspices of Gen. Wm. F. Bartlett Woman's Relief Corps a most successful "baked bean supper" was served at G.A.R. Hall on Essex street Saturday from 5 to 7. Dancing was enjoyed for a short time afterwards.

On and after this week, the art gallery in Memorial Hall will not be open on Friday evenings, but will be open on Friday and Saturday afternoons.

Hardy and Cole will probably build a large new store house on their land near the Boston and Maine tracks.

Mrs. Trueworthy White of the State League of Women Voters addresses the local league on "The Duties of Citizenship." Mrs. Edgar Folk, who was recently elected to the Andover school committee, was a guest of the afternoon program.

At a meeting of the selectmen this week, major appointments were announced with Charles F. Emerson reappointed fire chief and Frank M. Smith, police chief.

The county commissioners have approved $8,000 as their portion of the cost of rebuilding Haverhill street. With similar amounts from the town and the state, the road will be improved from the station to the North Andover line.

The board of selectmen has granted a petition for gasoline storage and for sale to Ralph G. Parker of Andover street in Ballardvale. Another petition for a gasoline station on the Reading road was taken under advisement until the location could be viewed.

25 Years Ago - March, 1950

Louis E. Gleason of Woodland road and Frederick W. Doyle of Chandler Road, have been named to the Finance Committee to succeed Dr. Harry V. Byrne and Ellsworth H. Lewis.

Miss Jeanie Mitchell was elected commander of the All Women's post 427 American Legion succeeding Mrs. Dorothy Volker.

Police checking on dumping of refuse at upper end of Canterbury street following complaints of neighbors, who are co-operating by reporting offenders.

New form of graduation exercises approved for Punched at request of students. Top four class members to be honored but not be subjected to "the strain of writing and delivering essays. A guest speaker is preferred.

Roy E. Hardy, Howell M. Stillman, Gordon Colquhoun, Atty. Fredric S. O'Brien, Joseph A. McCarthy, Sidney P. White and Wallace E. Brimer named to school building committee.

10 Years Ago - March, 1965

The school committee has agreed to examine a list of agenda items and establish priorities for action when it meets again later this month.

Andover Co-Op, at its annual meeting held in the Phillips Academy gymnasium, reports it had the biggest net in 25 years, with sales last year totalling $1,635,848.

What Our Readers Say-

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

Through this public forum CARE would like to commend the students and faculty at the West Junior High School in Andover for their humanitarian concern and active involvement in meeting the crisis of world hunger which threatens millions.

An atmosphere of excitement and total commitment permeates the school. A local project is underway to help the hungry in the Merrimack Valley, and a student fast day, foodless bake sale and a dance are among the other projects which have already been held to raise funds to aid the hungry of the world through CARE. Creative posters are visible everywhere.

Social Studies Department Chairman Bruce Dewire is the faculty leader, and the student body is coordinated by two outstanding young ladies -- Leslie Obermeier and Ronna Ponty -- who show leadership capabilities far beyond their age.

During a recent series of seminars and school assemblies they pledged their total commitment to meet the world hunger crisis and they expressed the firm hope that their efforts would help to awaken and expand public, private and government concern as well.

CARE is proud of these students and teachers, and the growing thousands like them, who have pledged their energies and resources to meet the crisis of world hunger. We hope your readers will share this pride, and seek some positive and meaningful way to join them in this project.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

The Haven Associates are sponsoring another trip! The date is Thursday, April 24 and the destination is the Hammond Museum in Gloucester. Lunch will be at The Marguery in Ipswich. Watch these columns for further information regarding cost and time of departure or call The Haven (475-3968 or 475-4165).

The second telephone number noted above is an additional phone now installed at The Haven to accommodate the many callers.

The next session of the mini-clinic is scheduled for The Haven on April 1 from 2 to 4 p.m. Patients are seen by appointment only so that there is no need for long waits. Call The Haven to schedule your appointment. If anyone is interested in an eye clinic, there is the possibility that one may be established at The Haven. If you are interested, call The Haven and let them know. If there is sufficient demand it will be implemented.

Note the following class time changes: Limbering Up class now starts at 10:30 Monday mornings instead of 9:30, and the Wood Carving Class, formerly held Wednesday afternoons has moved to Tuesday morning at 9:30. Both classes have room for more. Why not plan to join them next week. You will be most welcome.

ACT To Assist Andona

The Andover Community Theatre, having just wound up an artistically successful run of "The Little Foxes," is planning for its next production, "The Sorcerer's Apprentice," a children's play featuring music, magic and fun.

The production will run for three performances as the big show for Clown Town, May 17. The Andona Society will join with ACT in sponsorship of this production for children of all ages in the hope that theatre will become a regular event for Andover's children.

Casting begins on Tuesday, March 25, following the regular meeting of the Andover Community Theatre, to which all interested townspeople are invited. The meeting will be held at West Community Center on River Road at 7:45 p.m. Casting calls will also be on Wednesday and Thursday, March 26 and 27 at West Elementary School auditorium from 7:30 to 9:30.

The cast includes one man, two women, two teenagers and several extras.

Elizabeth Zedi will be director for this production. Marie Flynn, a member of Andona, is Big Show chairman and may be contacted for ticket information.

Anita McDuffie

To Direct Musical

Anita McDuffie of Andover is musical director of an upcoming production of the highly successful Broadway musical "Cabaret" which will be presented by the Colonial Chorus at Reading Memorial High School on April 18, 19, 25 and 26. This well-known musical is set in Berlin, Germany during 1929-30, just before the start of the Third Reich.

Anita has her Bachelor of Music Degree from Emmanuel College. She has been musical director for "Man of LaMancha," "Mame," "The Music Man," "Applause" and "Ahmahl and the Night Visitors" for the Winthrop Playmakers and Burlington High School. A few seasons back, Anita was musical director for the Colonial Chorus production of "The Sound of Music." On stage she has appeared as Molly in "Unsinkable Molly Brown" for the Melrose Community Players.

James Grana of Cambridge is directing the dialogue and staging the production of "Cabaret." Jim has had a good deal of experience directing community theatre productions. He has also had leading roles in a number of shows and has twice won the best actor in New England award at the New England Theatre Conference competition at Brandeis University. Jim and Anita have worked together as director and musical director respectively on a number of occasions.

Tickets are available from ticket chairman Paul McCarthy of Reading; at the Book Nook in Reading square and from any chorus member. Blocks of 50 or more tickets are also available at Sliced celery can be cooked along with other vegetables such as carrots, peas and onions, and combines nicely with potatoes in creamed dishes or casseroles.

A favorite in Oriental cooking, celery can be sliced diagonally and sauteed in oil or butter with scallions and garlic, then topped with lightly browned slivered almonds if you like.

Cooked or in the raw, celery is a dieter's best friend. One stalk of raw celery has only 5 calories, while one cup of diced celery has 15 calories.

Seeks Book Donations For Fair

Mrs. Claire LaRochelle (Raymond) of Stinson Road, Andover, the Lesley College Alumni Association regional representative for the Merrimack Valley area, is requesting book donations for a Book Fair to be held on the Cambridge Common, May 17-18, in conjunction with the New England Spring Festival.

Proceeds from the second annual Lesley College Alumni Book Fair will go into the Alumni Scholarship Fund. All book contributions are sorely needed, including textbooks, hardbacks, paperbacks, children's books and technical books. You may also call Lesley Director of Alumni Programs, Joyce Snyder at 868-9600.

Lesley prepares 700 undergraduate women to be highly qualified elementary school teachers. In addition, students may specialize in the teaching of reading, day care, early childhood education, teaching the mentally retarded and emotionally disturbed, and urban education. At the co-educational graduate level, 1,000 students may also involve themselves in math, open education, learning, behavioral, and developmental disabilities specializations, arts in education and therapy.

Flu Virus

A Service
University of

The flu is taking a multitude of ill-year. By definition, "the flu" is an action of the respiratory system, generally lasts two to three days, but cases have lingered up to a full year. It is primarily transmitted by watery droplets from an infected individual.

Symptoms of the flu include: tiredness, aches, headaches, sneezing, chills, and watery eyes. The respiratory system is affected, causing a watery discharge from the nose, which is precipitated by the virus within the respiratory tract.

At this point, no known agent is treating the virus, says Richard W. Atkinson, M.D., an instructor of pharmacology at the University of Michigan. "Aspirin and similar drugs are used to treat the symptoms, but generally associated with viral infection, but shown that such simply add to the increasing the chills."

The cough associated with the flu can be treated with codeine, or a similar drug.

Flu Virus Strains Often Change From Year To Year

A Service Of
University of Rhode Island

The flu is taking the blame for a multitude of ills at this time of year. By definition, influenza, or "the flu" is an acute viral infection of the respiratory tract. It generally lasts two or three days, but cases have been known to linger up to a full week. The virus is primarily transmitted by watery droplets produced when an infected individual sneezes.

Symptoms of the flu are tiredness, aching muscles, headaches, sneezing, fever, chills, and watery eyes. The respiratory system is affected by sneezing, stuffy nose (with a watery discharge), and coughing precipitated by the watery secretion within the respiratory tract.

"At this point in time, no known agent is effective in treating the viral infection," says Richard Walchle, clinical instructor of pharmacy at URI. "Aspirin and similar agents are used to treat the symptoms generally associated with the viral infection, but it has been shown that such medications simply add to the discomfort by increasing the sweating and chills."

The cough associated with influenza can be treated with codeine, or a similar medication.

Flea Market Planned

Plans are now being made by the Bykota Group of the Martin's Pond Union Baptist Church, Cogswell Road, North Reading, for a flea market on May 17 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. There will be a bakery table also luncheon will be served. Tables are now available by contacting Mrs. Marion Cleaves, Mrs. Jerry Piercy or Mrs. Althea Moran.

CALL 475-1943 FOR
OUR AD TAKER

Recommended treatment of the viral infection is generally ingestion of large amounts of fluid (juices), coupled with bed rest.

"Antibiotics do not change the course of the viral infection," Walchle continued. But some antibiotics can prevent secondary infections which are one of the major problems associated with the flu. Opportunistic bacteria often prey on individuals who are weakened by an infection such as influenza. Such a secondary infection generally leads to pneumonia.

The virus which causes influenza is unusual in that it is capable of changing its strains from year to year (sometimes more frequently). In some diseases, once an individual has had an infection, he is protected from the disease for life (for example, measles, or mumps). This is not true of "flu" and, as the virus changes, an individual can be reinfected, Walchle said.

A vaccine is available that will provide protection for individuals against certain "strains" of the virus. The vaccine, however, has to be continually "updated" due to the changes in the virus.

It is not recommended that the general population be inoculated with the "vaccine," Walchle continued. "The Public Health Service does recommend that pregnant women, and persons over 65 receive an annual immunization. Immunization is also recommended for individuals that are 'high risk' including those with heart or lung disease (such as emphysema), cardiovascular disease, and other chronic disease states.

A family physician, he concludes, is the best person to decide on the advisability of immunization against the flu and antibiotic treatment if it does strike.

Ascent Of Man Series
The film to be presented in the next Ascent of Man series, Generation Upon Generation, will be shown on Wednesday, March 26 at 3 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m. in the Hall at the library. This movie is concerned with the study of human inheritance from the theories of Gregor Mendel to the work of present day laboratories in genetics. The narration is by Dr. Jacob Bronowski, famed writer and scientist.

Great Books Program
The Great Books program continues on Tuesday, March 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the Trustees Room at the library. At that time Sigmund Freud's On Dreams will be discussed and, as usual, Robert Rockwell will conduct the meeting.

Red Cross Display
March is Red Cross Month and to commemorate it the library has an interesting display set up next to the circulation desk. Materials describing the many functions of the Red Cross and in particular its blood donor program are available to the public. All of our patrons are in-

Children's Room News
By Jan Johnson

The calendar says that spring has arrived and we have planned a celebration in conjunction with the Village Garden Club for Saturday, March 22. All children in grades 3-6 are invited to come and learn to make flowers from fabric at 10:30 that morning. This colorful craft can really brighten up your home for the early part of spring. Since all materials will be supplied, please register at the Children's Room desk by 5 Friday, March 21, so we'll have enough.

Three short films for preschool children and their parents will be shown on Friday, March 21 at 10:30 and again at 2. This week's program includes Madeline, Just One Me and Little Blue and Little Yellow. Join us in the Children's Room for 35 to 40 minutes of relaxing entertainment.

Grade school children (K-6) will want to mark Saturday, March 29 on their calendars. On that day at 10:30 we'll cross the drawbridge of time and enter the world of knights and tournaments, lords and ladies, castles and jesters. Through games, stories and booktalks we will meet Robin Hood, King Arthur and others. Join us.

For parents we announce something brand new - a workshop full of ideas for an activity approach to growing with children aged 3-8 years: All Around the Mulberry Bush. This 6 week program is co-sponsored and will be co-hosted by North Andover's public library. More details are available at the Children's Room desk. Register beginning April 1.

Use dry beans to make chili soups and chowders. Make your own baked beans in quantity. Use part; freeze the rest for another time. Conserves energy, too. A tip on economy, ecology, and enjoyment of food for Nutrition Week.

Flowers from Valentine's - An Easter Tradition

Easter and Spring go hand in hand with dewy fresh flowers from Valentine Flowers, One Elm Street in Andover. It is a tradition in the Andovers to wear a Valentine corsage on Easter morning, to have Valentine's deliver a bouquet of fresh flowers or a lovely plant to Mom, to bring a gift planter or nosegay to your Easter dinner hostess.

Valentine's can also accommodate local families who live away from their relatives, as they are a member of F.T.D. This is a national floral service with over 11,000 members. Simply call Valentine's in Andover with your order and your floral gift will be delivered anywhere of your choosing, in the U. S. or Canada.

To avoid disappointment, especially on these out-of-town orders, call Valentine's early. This is a busy time for florists and they want to give you the best service possible so allow them ample time. Local deliveries are made 2 and 3 times daily.

Stop in at Valentine's when you are in Andover Square and see the simply breathtaking Easter floral suggestions. There are the traditional Easter lilies fresh and blooming, in all sizes; daffodils; tulips; hyacinths; azaleas; hydrangeas; African violets; all attractively potted for giving. There are colorful arrangements of fresh-cut flowers, including mixed bouquets or flowers of your choice. There are exquisite white and lavender orchid corsages, plus the pretty cymbidium orchids in white, pink, green, yellow and brown.

Telephone Valentine Flowers at 475-2929 or stop in and make your choice; One Elm Street, just off the Square in Andover; An Easter Tradition!

THE TOWNSMAN, MARCH 20, 1975

Legislature May Act On Bill For Train

Town meeting will be asked to approve petitioning the state legislature to enact enabling legislation to pay prior bills to the MBTA for train service to Andover.

The town will also be asked to approve funds for continued train service to Andover in a separate article.

The enabling legislation procedure is the result of a conference last week with town counsel and counsel for the MBTA which determined that the best procedure to follow in the payment of past bills was to ask the legislature for approval.

The town owes the MBTA $20,000 for service dating back to January, 1974.

At the conference last week between David Gunn, who is in charge of commuter rail service for the MBTA, Atty. John Coffey, MBTA counsel, Town Counsel Alfred Daniels and Town Manager J. Maynard Austin, it was determined that there was no specific contract between the town and the MBTA from January, 1974. The train had been running by agreement based on prior contracts, it is believed.

Due to legal restraints on paying prior bills under new fiscal year policy, counsel for both the town and the MBTA agreed that the best procedure to follow would be to ask the legislature to pass an act which would remove all legal ramifications of paying the past due bills.

This will be presented in an article in the special town meeting warrant to be acted upon at the April 7 session.

Jaycees To Assist Retarded

Jim Edholm was named chairman for the Jaycees fifth annual "Help Light the Way" fund drive by Bruce Deery, president, Andover Jaycees. Edholm will head the local drive March 28-31 to raise money to help the mentally handicapped citizens of our community and state.

The Jaycees will be selling apple butter on those days to raise funds.

"A goal of 500 jars of apple butter has been set for Andover, and I am confident that the citizens of our town won't let the mentally handicapped citizens of Massachusetts down," said Edholm on accepting his appointment.

Last year the Andover Jaycees sold 255 jars and at this time are confident of reaching and even exceeding their goal.

It will be explained that the funds are to provide for three specific periods. One will be from January 1974 to November when town meeting disapproved the continued service. Another period will be that portion which has been provided through funds secured by the Andover Rail Committee and being held in escrow to continue the service until annual town

Rules For Town Meeting

The new stipulation on questioning budget items is aimed at eliminating frivolous passing on the various budget items.

In the past several of the items have been "passed" when presented to the meeting. When the moderator has returned to that item and opened the session to debate, no one has come forth with questions or comments.

Therefore, beginning with this year's annual meeting which begins Monday, March 31, any persons who wishes to "pass" on a line item must stand and identify themselves and the clerk will note the name.

When the meeting returns to the "passed" item, the clerk will read the name of the "passer" and he or she comment on the budget item.

The matter of limiting debate will also be introduced at this year's meeting.

Moderator Dalton said he adopted the suggestion of the study committee which provides that speaker be limited to five minutes on any article and that five minutes be allowed for rebuttal.

Persons who feel that additional time is required to present information relative to the articles, will be allowed additional time, if arrangements are made in writing to the moderator in advance of the session.

The moderator will examine meeting action.

The third period is from the annual town meeting through to the end of '74-'75 fiscal year which ends in June.

If approved, the town meeting will then be asked to return to the regular town meeting warrant and act on Article 36, which calls for $20,000 for continued train service for the next fiscal year.

the reasons for the request for additional time for presentation or debate and rule on the matter.

The new rules are aimed at expediting the annual municipal business session.

The moderator notes that there has been some time consumed in the past with the calling for passing of line items in the budget and the eventual lack of discussion or question when the meeting returns to that item.

As for the limitation of debate, the moderator notes that this is not meant to infringe on any person's privilege to address town meeting, but only an effort to move the session along in a smooth manner.

Good Buys

Current good produce buys are Maine potatoes, green cabbage, yellow turnips, carrots, zucchini squash, broccoli, McIntosh apples and Florida oranges.

At meat counters, there should be good values in ground beef, beef liver, turkeys, chicken and pork. In fish, watch for sales in frozen cod fillets and also fresh fish.

Safety Hazards

The five safety hazards found most frequently at construction sites by the U. S. Department of Labor's Occupational Safety and Health Administration are: lack of standard railings; debris in work areas; failure to secure compressed gas cylinders upright; no fire extinguisher within 100 feet of building area, and failure to use protective headgear.
